West Tower, Aughton

TOWER OF STRENGTH!

Community hails 'local hero' Stephanie for selfless work helping NHS staff at Aughton wedding venue

Report by Tom Martin

THE manager of a West Lancashire wedding venue who allowed NHS staff to stay there free of charge during the height of the virus outbreak has been hailed a 'local hero'.

Stephanie Beqo, general manager at West Tower, in Aughton, not only offered the empty bedrooms to doctors and nurses, but also made the selfless decision to move out of her family home to work on site for 12 weeks between March to June.

Leaving behind her husband and two children, who are only aged six and one, Stephanie helped clean and tidy the rooms on her own while the NHS staff battled to save lives in nearby hospitals during the worst months of COVID-19.

After word got out of Stephanie's gesture, hundreds of proud local residents took to social media to praise her efforts and staff from a local Morrison's store sent a gift basket.

Stephanie told the Champion: "I have a number of friends and family members who work for the NHS and I was seeing a number of posts on social media back in

Stephanie with husband Emiliano and children Mia and Theo

March from individuals looking for cheap accommodation so they could leave their family home and continue working. When I knew West Tower would be unable to host weddings, I messaged those personal contacts privately and told them they were welcome to stay at West Tower so they could continue to work.

"This offer was available to any NHS staff for a total of 12 weeks until the end of June. As they were leaving their family home I thought it only right that I do the same.

"I was living on site at West Tower as someone needed to be there to ensure the bedrooms could be serviced, sanitized and set up ready for each guests arrival.

Major boost for Skem rail link scheme

Plan could be accelerated under new funding rules

A LONG awaited rail link in Skelmersdale has been given a major boost after it was revealed work on the scheme could be "accelerated" under a new funding application.

Better train access for the town has been talked about for many years, with MP Rosie Cooper campaigning for the project ever since she was first elected in 2005, claiming it would "open up a world of economic and social opportunities for Skelmersdale and its residents".

The plans have now been given fresh hope after Lancashire County Council announced last week it had 'put forward' a number of projects which could be delivered quickly as part of a new call from Transport for the North for the government to fund schemes which could help the economy following the Covid-19 pandemic.

'Delivery'

Transport for the North wants to encourage more infrastructure projects to not only help local trade and employment following lockdown, but also encourage "greener northern growth".

One of the projects put forward in Lancashire is a rail link to Skelmersdale. If successful, it would ensure funding is in place for detailed design work needed to progress proposals and 'speed its delivery'.

Soft play centres, bowling alleys, casinos and more reopened after lockdown

Report by Tom Martin

SOFT play centres, bowling alleys and casinos are just some of the latest businesses that reopened across West Lancashire following a further easing of measures last weekend.

From Saturday, August 15, more businesses in England were given a green light to finally open their doors, which also included 'close contact' beauty treatments, small wedding receptions and live indoor performances.

These were initially scheduled to open on August 1, but the date was pushed back following a slight increase in the number of people testing positive for coronavirus.

A full list of reopened businesses are:

- Beauty services such as facials, eye-

Soft play centres have been allowed to reopen brow threading, eyelash treatments, make up application and microblading

- Casinos, bowling alleys, skating rinks and soft play centres
- Wedding receptions in the form of a sit-down meal for up to 30 guests
- Indoor theatre, music and performance venues will be able to reopen with socially distanced audiences

New guidance will also mean that staff offering 'close contact' services, including hairdressers, will now have to wear a face mask as well as a clear visor.

Prime Minister Boris Johnson said "it will allow more people to return to work and the public to get back to more of the things they have missed".

However, Mr Johnson reiterated a warning that the government "will not hesitate to put on the brakes if required, or to continue to implement local measures to help to control the spread of the virus".

It comes after tougher measures were brought in to fine people who don't wear face masks.

Under current guidance, people who refuse to wear a face covering where it is required face a £100 fine, which can be reduced to £50 if paid within 14 days.

The new enforcement measures will see that penalty repeatedly doubled for subsequent offences, up to a maximum of £3,200.

...as Ormskirk Library also prepares to open its doors once more

ORMSKIRK Library was due to reopen today (Wednesday, August 19) for the first time since March, but locals keen to get back to the facility will need to book an appointment before visiting.

Lancashire County Council has made a decision to reopen 14 more of its libraries having already given a green light to others, including Skelmersdale Library, which has been open for several weeks now.

The opening hours for Ormskirk Library (see right) are Monday to Friday, 10am to 1pm and 2pm to 4pm.

In a further move to increase opening hours, Skelmersdale Library will now be open on a Saturday between 10am and 2pm starting this weekend (August 22).

County Councillor Peter Buckley, Lancashire County Council's cabinet member for community and cultural services, said: "It is such good news that we are now able to welcome our customers back into 14 more of our libraries.

"We are taking a phased, step-by-step approach to this, and we are also making more of our services available in the libraries as well, as we cautiously make our way back to normal. I'm grateful for everyone's patience and understanding, and I'd ask everyone to keep an eye on our website and social media channels where we will announce further details of more libraries reopening."

The online system to book an appointment is available at www.lancashire.gov.uk/coronavirus-updates/libraries

For those who can't book online, appointments can be made by calling 0300 123 6703.

Customers can make an appointment to visit any of the County libraries that are now open, even if it isn't their local library.

Planning law changes 'will do nothing for housing crisis in West Lancs'

PLANS to overhaul the country's planning system "will do nothing to alleviate the housing crisis in West Lancashire," say local Liberal Democrats.

The Champion reported last week how the most significant reforms to housing policy in decades will aim to accelerate building on brownfield land, but valued green spaces and greenbelt land will continue to be protected, the government has promised.

However, David Thomas, the Lib Dem party's spokesperson for West Lancashire, claims the proposals will not help those who are stuck on housing waiting lists and expressed concern that 'zoning plans' risk 'leaving whole areas behind'.

Instead, the party is calling for "an urgent house building programme", with proposals to build 100,000 social homes for rent every year.

Mr Thomas said: "Across West Lancashire, 889 families are stuck on the housing waiting list. This is unacceptable.

"With councils across the country approving nine out of ten planning applications, it is obvious that reforming planning laws will not help people on waiting lists or struggling to afford a home in West Lancashire.

"The Liberal Democrats want to see 100,000 new social homes built every year, and for West Lancashire Borough Council to have the power to suspend the right to buy, so that we can finally start tackling the housing crisis in the local area."

Housing Secretary Robert Jenrick said earlier this month how the landmark changes will 'transform a system that has long been criticised for being too sluggish in providing housing for families, key workers and young people and too ineffectual in obligating developers to properly fund the infrastructure - such as schools, roads and GP surgeries - to support them'.

James Jamieson, Chairman of the Local Government Association, said: "Any loss of local control over developments would be a concern.

"It would deprive communities of the ability to define the area they live in and know best and risk giving developers the freedom to ride roughshod over local areas."

Floods cause yet more misery across borough

Report by Tom Martin

FURIOUS residents and farmers across West Lancashire are calling on the authorities to investigate flooding issues after last week's flash floods caused widespread misery.

The Champion was been contacted by a number of residents after heavy rainfall overnight on Monday, August 10.

An angry MP Rosie Cooper, contacted West Lancashire Borough Council, Lancashire County Council, United Utilities and even the Secretary of State for Environment in an effort to get to the bottom of what are ongoing problems when it rains heavy.

Burscough Flooding Group, formed by residents, are also pressuring WLBC to investigate the local drainage systems, particularly in the Burscough and Hesketh Bank areas.

Lancashire County Council told the Champion the flooding was caused by the downpour 'overwhelming local drainage systems'.

Resident, Bernie Webster, who lives in Crabtree Lane, sent video footage to the Champion showing how the flooding got into his home and explained how he was up from 2am on Tuesday, August 11 desperately trying to prevent further damage.

He said: "I was woken up by my flood alarm. You just don't know where to start when this happens. It is a really difficult situation to deal with."

The Champion has previously reported how Bernie has suffered from serious asthma attacks due to the flooding problems.

Last year he took drastic action and dug up the length of his garden to install drainage pipes and set up three automatic electronic pumps to move flood waters away from his property into a neighbouring field.

However, even this was not strong enough to stop last week's deluge.

He said: "Five times in the last 12 months I have managed to fight off the flood by using the pumps that I have installed, these pumps not only protect me but also my neighbours. However, these were just not good enough.

"The authorities have known about this problem for many years. I have somewhere in the region of 1,500 emails highlighting the problem. It can be resolved, but there is no will to resolve it."

Another West Lancs resident, Mary Scambler, lives on a farm on Shore Road, in Hesketh Bank.

Help 'urgently needed' warns angry MP as residents suffer again

She sent pictures to the Champion to show how local fields were submerged following the downpour.

She says farmers are particularly vulnerable to flooding because it ruins crops and it affects their livelihood. She said: "The Environment Agency needs to come and see for themselves the flooding on Hesketh Bank Marsh, as yet again our crops are under water.

"Water courses and ditches are not running as they should be, due to the fact the Environment Agency do not do the job they are responsible for which is cutting back vegetation and removing debris and silt deposits from the bed and banks. We urgently need something doing."

Another resident, who rents a property on Church Road, in Tarleton, claims there were as many as 11 houses flooded on his particular street. He said: "I've complained to West Lancashire Borough Council but was told it's not high on their priority list. There is a big problem with the main drain and it's only prone to happen again but the council won't do anything."

MP Rosie Cooper, who visited several affected areas after the flooding, said: "All agencies responsible have had numerous warnings of the flood risk in this area and despite much correspondence back and forth, residents' homes have just been left to flood yet again.

"I have again written to them asking what action they are now taking to support residents in draining and cleaning their homes, carrying out necessary repairs and ensuring their homes are protected against future flooding.

"I have also asked how they are urgently addressing the wider flooding problems we see in Burscough every time there is any increased level of rainfall, while massive developments which add huge pressure on the already unsatisfactory drainage systems continue apace.

"The Minister needs to step in and help sort this problem out as action and help is urgently needed now! The further threat of turning off local flood pumps is adding to residents' stress, and I have written asking for a detailed up to date position."

A spokesperson for Lancashire County Council said: "The prolonged heavy rainfall caused widespread surface water flooding due to the volume of water overwhelming local drainage systems. Many of these systems eventually drain out to sea, and the problems along the west coast of Lancashire were compounded by a high tide at 4.40am which meant the water could not quickly drain away.

"Our highways teams attended a number of locations where flood waters had carried debris into drains, and checked and cleaned them to ensure they are working as they should be.

"We're aware of a number of properties being flooded, and our thoughts are with those who have been affected. However, we would ask anyone who hasn't yet contacted us to please let us know so that we can record the incident, and investigate further."

West Lancs Borough Council were also asked to comment.

New boost for Skem rail link scheme

County Councillor Michael Green, Lancashire County Council cabinet member for economic development, environment and planning, said: "We know the government is keen to invest in transport infrastructure, particularly where there is evidence that projects can be delivered quickly and that every pound spent will have a good return and give confidence to businesses.

"We've put forward a number of schemes as part of the Transport for the North Economic Recovery Plan which are at an advanced stage, and where an injection of cash now could lead to work on the ground being able to start quickly.

"These road, rail and sustainable transport improvements are needed to update our infrastructure and ensure Lancashire can meet the needs of residents and businesses as our economy recovers from the pandemic and grows over the coming years.

"There are a number of bigger schemes within Lancashire where we already have a business case in development to support them, but investment at this stage could really accelerate their delivery. These schemes, such as the Skelmersdale rail link, really do have the potential to transform opportunities for our communities and boost Lancashire's contribution to the UK economy."

The Champion reported in June how more than £2million has been pledged to demolish Skelmersdale College to make way for a future train station in the town.

Lancashire County Council's Cabinet have approved the acquisition of the former college site and allocated funds to demolish the buildings along with additional costs in preparation of the station development.

It brought all the required land together for the train station, parking and retail development, in addition to the current work already being carried out by West Lancashire Borough Council and partners.

MP Rosie Cooper has previously said about the rail link proposition: "Residents have waited decades for adequate transport links and I have been campaigning for a train station for Skelmersdale since being elected here in 2005.

"I have consistently said that a railway station in the heart of Skelmersdale will open up a world of economic and social opportunities for the town and its residents."

Stephanie hailed for work at West Tower

"Depending on the doctors' and nurses' shift pattern this could be late at night or early morning and it meant I was available should any of them need anything and I could meet them on arrival to give them their bedroom keys.

"On arrival I gave them all my mobile number so they could contact me direct if they needed anything at all.

"My daughter is six and just about understands what is going on. I wanted to show her the importance of helping others and doing what we could during the pandemic for those who were working so hard for us all."

When West Tower was closed on March 20, Stephanie and her hard working team had to postpone weddings and so far there are 130 that have been rearranged!

She added: "Throughout the pandemic and to date we have remained available to our guests seven days per week on website, email, phone, social media etc. I am not aware of any other venue that has done what West Tower have done."

£1m lottery ticket bought in West Lancs is unclaimed!

Appeal for local players to check their numbers!

Report by Tom Martin

A LOTTERY ticket bought in West Lancashire worth £1million has yet to be claimed!

Although the person may not be living in Ormskirk or Skelmersdale, it was bought in the borough so local lottery players are being urged to check (and double-check!) their tickets for the chance to claim this life-changing prize.

The ticket matches five main numbers and the bonus ball in the Lotto draw on August 1, which were: 4, 10, 13, 24, 53, 56 and the bonus ball was 22.

The race is now on to find the person, because there is a January 28, 2021 deadline to claim their prize.

Anyone not in possession of their ticket, for whatever reason, but who believes they have a genuine claim can still make a claim in writing to Camelot, but it must be within 30 days of the draw.

If no-one comes forward with the winning ticket before the prize claim deadline, then the prize money, plus all the interest it has generated, will go to help National Lottery-funded projects across the UK.

Camelot's Andy Carter, Senior Winners' Advisor at The National Lottery said: "We're desperate to find this mystery ticket-holder and unite them with their winnings, this amazing prize could really make a huge difference to somebody's life.

The lottery ticket is unclaimed

"In the current situation we're encouraging everyone to check their tickets online via The National Lottery website or via The National Lottery App, where possible. You can scan your retail draw-based game tickets on The National Lottery App to see if you've won a prize.

"Try checking in the pockets of clothing, in wallets, bags and down the back of the sofa. We have the champagne on ice and our fingers crossed that the lucky winner comes forward to claim their win."

With all National Lottery draws, players have 180 days from the day of the draw to claim their prize if they have the winning ticket.

Anyone who has any queries or who believes they have the winning ticket for any of the National Lottery draws within the 180-day deadline should call the National Lottery Line on 0333 234 5050 or email help@national-lottery.co.uk

Missing boy rescued from lake by police

Two plain-clothes officers are praised after they entered water to help ten-year-old

Report by Tom Martin

A TEN-YEAR-OLD boy from Ormskirk who went missing from his family at Crosby marina was rescued from the middle of the lake after two police officers swam to his aid.

The youngster, who has complex needs, was at the centre of a frantic search on Thursday, August 13 for more than 90 minutes when his mum reported him missing to Merseyside Police and the Coastguard.

He was then spotted in the middle of the large lake and Constable John Liauw-Jen-Choy and Constable Rebecca Morgan-Richardson, who were on plainclothes patrol in the area, entered the water fully-clothed to rescue him.

He was reunited with his mum, 11 year-old brother and eight year-old sister, who had travelled from their home in Ormskirk to visit the beauty spot.

His mum, who did not want to be named, said: "We had been told to wait by our car while the police searched for him. They kept ringing to say they had had sightings of him then we heard the news he had headed back to the lake and had been spotted in the middle of the water."

"It was a massive relief when we were told they had him. He doesn't know the area and has no concept of how far away from home we were."

The lake at Crosby marina

"The longer it went on, the more worried I had become. He isn't a strong swimmer. He was a bit upset afterwards but is absolutely fine now."

"The officers were very reassuring and everyone was very kind. I couldn't have asked for anything more."

Just before he went missing, the youngster had gone to get changed out of his swimwear in the sand dunes after spending time playing in the lake. His family searched the surrounding area before contacting police.

Constable John Liauw-Jen-Choy who has four years' service and Constable Rebecca Morgan-Richardson, who has been with the force for 19 months, are targeted officers based at Marsh Lane in Bootle.

Sefton Inspector Dave Uren said: "It was credit to John and Rebecca that as soon as they realised what the problem was, they went straight into the water to get to the boy and bring him to safety."

"I am delighted that my officers were able to help in this situation and that it had a happy ending."

Parents urged to make sure children are road safety aware

Parents urged to make sure children are taught about road safety before they return to school

Report by Tom Martin

WEST Lancashire parents have been urged to make sure their children are aware of road safety as schools prepare to reopen next month.

Safety campaigners have urged parents to help children learn the Green Cross Code "as they would their spellings or times tables".

MP Rosie Cooper has echoed these calls after a survey by YouGov revealed that almost two-thirds of parents did not think their children had a good understanding of the dangers or concentrate near roads.

MP Cooper said: "As lockdown restrictions are lifting and return to school approaches there will be an increase in the number of vehicles on the road so it is as important as ever that parents are practicing good road safety with their children."

"If parents in West Lancashire can teach their children now the importance of road safety it will protect them and save families from much heartache and pain in the future."

Sam Elsby, president of APIL - a not-for-profit group for injured people - added: "One in eight parents went as far as to say they are very concerned about their children's safety."

"The Highway Code states that children should not be allowed out alone until they can understand and use the Green Cross Code properly. So it is particularly important for those children who may be walking to school without a parent or guardian for the first time this term."

"Support children in their knowledge and understanding as it is their best tool for avoiding harm on the roads."

"Test your children this week on crossing between parked cars and on bends. And ask them if they know to look out for reverse lights so they know if a car is about to move backwards. Test them in the same way you would test them on their spellings or times tables".

Rowan chops off long pony tails for charity!

Report by Tom Martin

A SKELMERSDALE youngster has raised £625 for charity after cutting off her long locks of hair!

Rowan Sheridan, who is seven-years-old, chose to cut off her pony tails to help support the Little Princess Trust.

She went to Bella Hair Boutique on Thursday, August 13 for the hair cut, when 16 inches were chopped off by hairdressers!

Her proud mum, Angela, said: "She was sad at first but feels good about helping another child. It will be made into a wig to help a child who has lost their hair to cancer treatments or other conditions."

"Rowan can be shy but we think she's really brave. The reason she is doing it is that she understands, having lost two grandparents to cancer, that children with cancer must be having such a hard time."

Rowan has already hit her fundraising target, but if anyone would still like to donate, visit the website: www.justgiving.com/fundraising/angela-blackshaw2

Council's online service is 'safest way' to pay bills

WEST Lancashire residents have been urged to pay their bills online to help stay safe.

West Lancashire Borough Council has an online feature called the 'self-service account' for this purpose.

A spokesperson for the council said: "Your self-service account is a great way to access our services online at home at a time most convenient to you.

"Just some of the services you can do online are paying bills such as council tax, booking a bulky waste collection or reporting an issue in your local community such as fly tipping."

"If you do need to come in to speak to us our Customer Service Points are open in Skelmersdale and Ormskirk 10am to 3pm Tuesday to Thursday.

"To ensure we can keep staff and visitors safe we have installed screens at the counter and floor stickers. We will also be limiting the number of people coming into the Customer Service Point at any one time."

£1.7m funding tonic for NHS Trust to upgrade A&E facilities in time for winter

Report by Danielle Thompson

SOUTHPORT and Ormskirk NHS Trust will receive more than £1.7million to upgrade their A&E facilities ahead of winter.

The funds mean that the Trust will be able to increase its A&E capacity, put enhanced infection prevention and control measures in place and make improvements to emergency care and urgent treatment services.

The Trust explained that the work will include a purposed-designed, temporary Medical Day Unit at Ormskirk Hospital; improvements to A&E and urgent care services at Southport Hospital; enhanced infection protection measures in children's A&E at Ormskirk Hospital and investment in equipment and clinical support for patients with respiratory conditions.

Across England, the Government is providing £300 million to A&E departments, with work to be completed by the start of next year so hospitals can benefit from the upgrades during the peak of winter.

On announcing the funding, Prime Minister Boris Johnson said: "These upgrades will help our fantastic NHS prepare for the winter months, helping them to deliver world-leading services and reduce the risk of coronavirus infections. Thanks to the hard work and tireless efforts of NHS staff throughout the pandemic, our A&Es have remained open for the public.

"It's vital that those who need emergency treatment this winter access it, and for those who remain concerned about visiting hospitals, let me assure you that the NHS has measures in place to keep people safe."

The Government says the funding is on top of the additional £3billion the Prime Minister recently announced to help prepare the NHS for the winter months ahead.

This will allow the NHS to continue to use the extra hospital capacity acquired from the independent sector through the coronavirus pandemic and to maintain the Nightingale hospitals until the end of March next year.

Southport MP Damien Moore welcomed the funding announcement. He said: "Staff at Southport & Ormskirk NHS Hospitals Trust have worked tirelessly over recent months, and I would like to thank them for everything they have done to get our local community through the coronavirus pandemic.

"While we hope for the best this winter, it's right that we plan for the worst. This funding to upgrade A&E across the Trust will ensure that we are in the best possible position for the challenges that the winter months may bring. The NHS is my top priority and I was re-elected last December on a promise to deliver record NHS investment and level up the health service across the country. I am delighted to see the Government getting on with doing exactly that."

The Trust's chief executive Trish Armstrong-Child said: "We have been planning for winter with Covid since June and this investment further strengthens those plans. Our number one priority has, and always will be, the welfare and safety of our patients and staff.

"Covid-19 has significantly disrupted the working life of our hospitals and we have had to radically change how we work to minimise the risk of infection.

"Colleagues are working hard to return many services to as near normal as possible – but we are also having to keep in place some temporary changes for now to deliver our winter plan.

"These include the transfer of the Medical Day Unit to Ormskirk and retaining many of the restrictions on visiting. I know this will be difficult and concerning news for some people but these changes are likely to stay in place until Covid-19 is properly under control.

"I want to thank our staff, our patients and their families for their tremendous support over the past few months.

"We will get through this and get through it together."

Mini tornado spotted over Skelmersdale!

A 'FUNNEL cloud' was spotted over Skelmersdale earlier this week!

What looked like a mini tornado (see left image) could be seen by residents, including Shelley Lee, a Year One teacher at St James' Primary School in Ashurst, who saw the phenomenon on her way home from old Skelmersdale at around 6.15pm on Monday, August 17.

There has been wet and windy weather in West Lancashire over the past week, with a yellow thunderstorm warning in the borough.

A funnel cloud is made up of condensed water droplets, which usually appear with a rotating column of air.

These extend from the bottom of a cloud that does not touch the ground or a water surface. A funnel cloud can usually be seen as a cone or needle shaped cloud that extends out from the main cloud base.

Veteran accuses local authority of increasing flat service charges above government limit

A VETERAN from Skelmersdale has accused the local authority of increasing service charges on furnished flats in West Lancs above the government limit of 2% – which council chiefs have denied.

The man, who wishes to remain anonymous, lived in a furnished West Lancs Borough Council property from 2011 to 2017 and from 2018 onwards has been living in an unfurnished council property.

He has raised concerns that the rent payment for those living in furnished flats went up 'illegally' because he believes that the service charge, which is included in the overall rent fee, went up past the government's recommended 2% amount.

He believes that the increased service charge is hidden in the furnished 'rent' payment, as the unfurnished service fee went up from £4 to £7 in 2014 then up again to £21 – but he says that no comparative data is publicly available which outlines what the service fee costs for furnished properties.

He said: "Councils are not supposed to increase service charges for tenants who live in a flat by more than 2% each year as per government guidelines.

"Since 2014, WLBC has increased the service charge for those with a furnished tenancy by a lot more than that. As people in this category are usually vulnerable, they are more likely to claim benefits."

A spokesperson for West Lancashire Borough Council responded: "We refute the claim that we have acted unlawfully and we work closely with our colleagues at the Department for Work and Pensions to verify all details of charges for the housing costs for any tenant who is claiming Universal Credit.

"We are proud to be able to offer social housing to the residents of West Lancashire and we provide all tenants with information about annual rent charges and how to raise an issue with us if they wish to raise a complaint or feedback to us on how we can make improvements to the services we provide."

Anyone who has ever moved home knows that sorting, packing, and unpacking can be a time-consuming and strenuous process.

With Adlington Retirement Living help is on hand each step of the way, so you can look forward to the next chapter of retirement.

Alexandra Johnson, Sales and Marketing Director, explains: "Our team do everything they can to make each move into one of our apartments as stress-free and positive as possible, from offering part exchanges to providing a consultation with a Senior Move Manager. Our specialist partner, The Senior Move Partnership, offers services to take the stress, hard work and worry out of moving."

Michelle and her team offer a range of services depending on each client's needs.

"Some clients are happy to sort through their belongings themselves and might just want my help organising where it's all going to. Others might want help sorting through everything - from the contents of their wardrobes and drawers to their kitchens, lofts, sheds and garages. We take one room at a time and sit together so they can decide what they want to do with each item and then we make it happen.

"Sometimes a client might ask us to arrange for treasured possessions to be passed to family members. Other items might no longer be required, and we will arrange for them to be sent to auction, sold, donated or recycled."

Every Homeowner moving into an Adlington development receives eight hours of support from a handyman. Alexandra Johnson said: "It's an extra helping hand that makes a big difference to our Homeowners."

The whole moving process can be taken care of, leaving you to look forward to settling into your new home.

Senior Move Manager Michelle Park and her colleagues create a bespoke plan of support based on individual needs.

Michelle said: "The most important part of our job is getting to know each Homeowner, building a rapport with them and finding out how they would like us to help them."

A-Level results to be based on teacher assessments after government U-turn

Controversial algorithm is scrapped after wide-scale complaints from students

Report by Danielle Thompson

A-LEVEL results for West Lancashire students will now be based on teacher assessments after a dramatic government U-turn announced four days after the initial grades were handed out.

A rollercoaster of a week for local students saw them receive their results on Thursday, August 13, only for the government to then scrap the controversial grading system on Monday, August 17.

It means many students could now have their results changed, hopefully for the better, after it was revealed nearly 40% of awarded A-level grades in England had been lowered.

The government had used a combination of submissions made by teachers and then a government process known as 'standardisation'.

This standardisation process has now been scrapped and the original teacher submissions will be used. This will also be the case for the GCSE results tomorrow (Thursday, August 20).

Gavin Williamson, who is the Education Secretary, said he was "sorry for the distress this has caused young people."

Hannah and Oliver from Winstanley College with their results

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper welcomed the U-turn and labelled the standardisation process as a "shambolic system".

She said: "I have been inundated with concerns from my West Lancashire constituents about the shambolic system that has been used to award students their A-level grades.

"I have raised my concerns and those of my constituents directly with the Education Secretary and am pleased that the Government has now U-turned on this important issue.

"My concern now is that those who lost out on university places during admissions are not now disadvantaged and that Government take whatever action necessary to ensure this situation is resolved."

Lancashire County Council's cabinet member for children, young people and schools, County Councillor Phillippa Williamson congratulated all the young people who've been recognised for their hard work and the teachers who have supported them.

Cllr Williamson said: "Because of the pandemic students were unable to sit their final exams, which must have been extremely disappointing for them as they had spent so long working towards them.

"They should be proud of what they have achieved through such an extraordinary time. I wish them all every success as they move on to the next stage of their lives, whatever they choose to do."

At Winstanley College, principal Louise Tipping said: "We are so proud of all our resilient students who, with the amazing support of their caring teachers have battled all the odds this year to get to where they want to go. Congratulations to the class of 2020.

"Our students continue to be at the top of their game even in the wake of a global pandemic and we wish you the very best for the future."

Businesses warned about coronavirus scam after bogus worker pretends to be from council

WEST Lancashire businesses have been warned to be on their guard following reports of a bogus council official who has been trying to sell masks to make premises 'COVID-secure'.

Lancashire County Council's trading standards team has issued the warning following a report from a barber, who was duped when a man wearing a t-shirt with an NHS logo claimed to be from the council and wanted to carry out an inspection.

He tried to sell them boxes of face masks saying that they needed to purchase them to make their premises 'Covid-secure', even though they already had suitable protective equipment. He went on to say he could offer a deep-clean service for a fee.

Traders across Lancashire are being warned to be vigilant against this type of scam.

Genuine district and county council officers are inspecting businesses to ensure they are complying with Covid-19 measures. They will always carry photo ID, never claim or display any links to the NHS, and will not sell protective equipment or any deep clean services.

County Councillor Albert Atkinson, cabinet member for technical services, rural affairs and waste management, said: "If you're in any doubt, you should check the officer's identity by contacting the relevant council. A genuine official will always be happy to wait while a check is carried out.

"Although businesses must be vigilant against scams traders cannot refuse a genuine inspection by an authorised officer.

"These visits are necessary to ensure businesses are following the regulations to reduce the risk of coronavirus being spread in our community."

Council 'didn't consider' carbon neutral plans for new housing development

...but leader hits back at 'hypocritical' claims by OWL party

Report by Danielle Thompson

COUNCILLORS have questioned how committed West Lancashire Borough Council chiefs are to their carbon neutral plans.

Our West Lancashire (OWL) councillors claim that the authority 'had not even considered the best available energy efficiency standards' when planning 37 new council homes.

The council plan to build 27 homes at Northfield in Skelmersdale and a further 10 homes at the site of the Halton Castle in Westhead.

OWL planning spokesman, Cllr Ian Rigby said: "The council are planning to build 37 new council homes on sites in Skelmersdale and Westhead. Yet when we asked for the financial appraisals of the schemes, we were disappointed to learn that the plans were to build the homes only to the minimum standards required by current building regulations.

"There is already a Future Homes Standard that achieves a much higher standard of energy efficiency. While it is not currently required, if the Borough Council is to turn the fine words of becoming a carbon neutral council by 2030, then it needs to make a start now.

"It should at least have considered building to 'best available' standards. Instead, they are to press on without even considering this greener option.

Greener Option

"These new homes will likely still be inhabited into the next century and extra investment in the structure of these properties now, as they are built, could be a good investment financially and for our environment over future decades."

Councillor Ian Moran, Leader of the Council added: "I think it hypocritical of OWL whose leader Cllr Owens was the deputy leader of the previous Conservative administration and lead on council finance issues when collectively they refused to fit solar panels to our housing stock because they thought they 'looked ugly', thus denying many hundreds of resident savings on their fuel bills and further damaging our environment."

A spokesperson for West Lancs Borough Council replied: "We will have lots of opportunities to demonstrate our commitment to the delivery of a carbon neutral environment to everyone in West Lancashire and we will make this a reality with a number of high profile projects to be developed and delivered by March 2022.

"The homes Cllr Rigby has focused on had already been designed and submitted for planning before the council made the commitment to prioritise the green agenda last July.

"Twelve carbon zero homes are planned to be built on disused garage sites and the aim is to start construction in early 2021. We are also installing solar panels in all our low rise flats. This will not only reduce the use of fossil fuel generated electricity but will provide savings for our tenants through reduced service charge costs.

"Collectively these projects will make a significant impact to our green agenda."

Two-wheel menaces

I love being on two wheels, ever since childhood and beyond.

At first it was bicycles, then scooters, and latterly motor cycles. I even encouraged our daughter to pass a motorcycle test before a car one as it would make her a better driver.

But these days we are confronted with two wheel menaces - those who irresponsibly believe they have total rights on our pavements and roads - on bicycles.

The government seems to be pandering to this minority group yet the authorities are failing to appreciate the inability of most of the population through age, infirmity or inclination to pursue this activity.

So how do pedestrians cross the cycle paths safely without being mown down - or even walking along their rightful pavement? And why are cyclists immune from prosecution? No cyclist will be deemed at fault if in collision with a vehicle.

All bicycles should be fitted with a bell and mirrors and licensed with number plates, with third party insurance. Training and a test should also be undertaken - just like the rest of road users.

'MP' Aughton

Waste of money!

As a resident of Westhead I would like to thank West Lancs Council for resurfacing School Lane - probably the one road in Westhead that did not need resurfacing.

This council seems to have a need to waste money but no idea where to spend it wisely.

C W, Westhead

Council must share critical information with its residents

On a recent Saturday evening, a rather innocuous tweet sent by Councillor Ron Cooper, claimed that because Preston had been required to apply further lockdown measures, 'West Lancashire has now been ranked as red', meaning that there had been 'an upward trend in cases' and that WLBC were actively progressing 'local prevention plans in anticipation that lockdown measures will be put in place'.

If local councillors are receiving critical public health information about the Covid-19 pandemic that is affecting our borough, why is this not being shared with West Lancashire residents?

Further, rather than receive such worrying news in passing, the Leader of the Council is supposed to keep residents fully informed about civil emergencies within the borough, especially during this quite difficult and stressful time for many residents and communities.

The current Leader of the Borough appears to have a blind spot in using good communication skills which, in this case, appear totally lacking.

Also, as with previous episodes regarding the Local Plan and The Pagoda in Ormskirk, he is not displaying the type of responsible leadership that West Lancashire deserves.

Privatisation creeping in

The points raised by Michele Martin in the Champion about the Government using the Covid crisis to hasten the privatisation of our NHS are extremely worrying.

She followed up in her letter with examples proving how the private system has been used in preference to the NHS purchasing system.

We all have been aware of the initial lack of PPE for NHS staff and care workers and the way the government did not use British suppliers. Her other claims are just as damning.

Virgin Care, as we know, has been creeping into West Lancashire, taking over parts of the NHS.

So many of us came out on Thursday nights to clap showing our appreciation for our NHS and care workers and I do hope we can all be as vociferous to make sure we do not allow our NHS to be taken over and privatised.

Judy Ingman, Aughton

How long to stop Tawd pollution?

After repeatedly reporting the pollution in the River Tawd (pictured) that happens on a daily basis, to the Environment Agency, nothing has been done.

The river runs through the Tawd Valley, one of Skelmersdale's natural beauty spots.

How long does it take to find the source of the pollution? Certainly not three years which is the length of time I have been complaining.

WT, Skelmersdale

Protect our health service

In response to Michele Martin's recent letter in the West Lancashire Champion that Covid is being used as a cover to hasten the privatisation of our NHS. I fully concur.

However, people were warned that the NHS was up for grabs and yet the people of Britain chose to put their trust in Boris Johnson.

For those that say, no government would dare privatise the NHS, think again folks.

Firstly, the Conservatives have a majority of 80. This means they can and will do everything they have ever dreamed of. In my opinion, the asset stripping of our NHS is now in full swing.

What are people going to do? Write a nasty letter to their MP; go on a march to Parliament? All grand ideas but, remember that 80 majority.

The USA health system is easy enough to research but basically it means no money, no treatment.

All the government has to do is say that anyone born before a certain date will continue to get free health care till the day they die. The rest of the population will have to take out some sort of insurance policy just like in the USA.

If the NHS falls, then we all fall.

Joseph Welsh, Skelmersdale

Stop the spread of malicious 'NHS for sale' scaremongering

I read with interest Michele Martin's letter (August 5) which was full of spurious claims and assertions.

No matter how many times the government say the NHS is not on the table for any trade discussions and is not for sale, opposition agitators get busy on their computers to propagate their usual rubbish.

As for her last paragraph "...will we still have an NHS this time next year?" the simple answer is YES, stronger than ever.

As for the nurses being left out of the recent public sector pay rise, they were subject to a three year salary review two years ago and will be getting a pay rise quite separately.

So stop spreading untrue malicious gossip for political ends.

Mr J Marshall, Birkdale

Prepare for mass of new houses on greenfield sites

Be prepared for a mass of new houses on land by Parrs Lane and other green field sites in Aughton as a result of the government's decision to effectively allow builders to build anywhere they choose.

The government had previously forced local authorities to build a minimum number of houses, now councils will have no control as to where houses will be built or what type of houses will be built.

The government appears to have abandoned the idea that a number of houses will be affordable and well insulated.

Also, they have failed to amend council tax so to charge more for bigger houses and sold council houses where two thirds of these are now privately rented.

Date set for return of non-league football

Burscough and Skem United supporters can now look forward to new season kicking off

Report by Tom Martin

Skem (in red) against Rylands

NON-LEAGUE football fans can circle Saturday, October 3 in their calendars after a proposed start date for the new season was confirmed.

The North West Counties Football League revealed their "provisional start date", which is dependent on government laws being relaxed to allow fans back into stadiums.

It means West Lancashire teams including Skelmersdale United and Burscough now have an idea of when the first match will be played.

Most clubs have already started pre-season after an original start date of September 5 was mooted, but this has now been described by league officials as "unfeasible".

Although October 3 is the new date, there are many uncertainties that still remain, including the complicated task of putting together a fixture list based on certain clubs ground sharing.

It is also reliant on spikes of COVID-19 cases, with other parts of the north currently experiencing increased lockdown measures, meaning league officials are prepared to push back the season start date into November.

A spokesperson for the NWCL said: "The FA has stated that the season will not commence until paying spectators are permitted into the grounds."

"This is fundamental to be able to start the season in a sustainable way for clubs. The cost of kicking off behind closed doors, for the majority of clubs, is financially unviable."

"We need to start somewhere and looking at the permutations of the current COVID-19 situation in the north west, the Management Committee has set a provisional start date of Saturday, October 3."

"This is subject to circumstances permitting and of course government legislation allowing gatherings of a certain size."

"At present there is a considerable list of items to be considered before we can start playing again. We are currently unable to set a fixture list due to groundshares between several of our clubs and those from other leagues."

"Those leagues in turn have to wait for the fixtures of higher leagues due to ground safety and local policing requirements so it all has a knock-on impact. In addition, the Isle of Man still has strict quarantine restrictions in place which add further complication."

"In implementing October 3 as a provisional start date, the Management Committee is mindful of the COVID-19 issues currently being faced in the north west and the likely changes in legislation as a result. Therefore, we are also making contingency plans for how the competition will operate if the start date goes into November or beyond."

"We are mindful of the fact that many clubs want to get back playing football, and that people want to watch it."

"However, many clubs simply cannot start in the current situation, so we have to balance the views of everyone working within Government guidelines."

"The safety and wellbeing of players, officials, volunteers and spectators remains our top priority and we can only start once we are satisfied that this can be maintained and the season can commence with all clubs being able to compete on a level playing field."

Toy sale raises money for Beirut victims

CHILDREN from a West Lancs village held a toy sale to raise money for victims of the Beirut explosion.

Felicity Hill, 6, Isabella Roach, 5, Zack Roach, 9, Imogen Hill, 9 and Finlay Roach, 9, (left) all attend Halsall St Cuthbert's Primary School and are all neighbours.

The youngsters got together to set-up a toy stand, selling anything from old teddies to games.

They were inspired to fundraise after learning about the explosion in Lebanon on Tuesday, August 4 which killed more than 200 people.

Through the toy sale, they managed to raise £60 for the emergency relief fund.

Tea & Tours underway at animal sanctuary

Report by Danielle Thompson

WOODLANDS Animal Sanctuary in Holmeswood is now hosting 'Tea & Tours' for visitors to get a behind-the-scenes peek at what the charity does.

For £10 per adult and £6 for under-12s, you can see for yourself the level of care given to the animals on site, and have the opportunity to get hands-on with some of them.

The two-hour session will give you an opportunity to learn about the animals the sanctuary rescue and rehabilitate as well as being able to have a look at their brand new facilities.

After you have spent time with the animals you will be served with drinks and cake under a marquee overlooking their picturesque duck pond.

This is a brand new venture for the charity and one of the ways they are trying to support themselves during these testing times.

They would very much still like to be able to welcome their supporters to their site, especially as they have just moved into their new facilities, and to keep everyone as included as possible with their work, even though events such as their open days have had to be cancelled for the time being.

Maintaining enough income to support the work they do is no mean feat, with weekly running costs of £3,000.

Tours began on August 11 on a trial basis and the charity intend to run them each day from 2pm-4pm.

There will be a maximum of ten people per tour and you will need to bring and wear your own face mask.

If further PPE is required in certain areas Woodlands will provide this for you.

Social distancing will of course be adhered to at all times and seating for refreshments will be by household.

Children are more than welcome, but must be accompanied by a responsible adult at all times.

Booking is by phone only on 01704 823293 and must be done in advance. Places are limited and will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

One of the guests people can meet at the sanctuary!

Neil finds it comforting in role as a funeral celebrant

Report by Danielle Thompson

WHAT does a funeral celebrant really do?

During the past few years, there has been an increase in the number of funerals being conducted by celebrants rather than religious leaders.

There are several reasons for this, one is that many people have little or no connection with organised religion. When it comes to funerals, people now have a choice. So, who, or what, is a funeral celebrant?

The Champion spoke to Neil Spencer, the funeral celebrant who conducted the funeral for our late One Man and His Dog columnist Jim Sharpe, about his role.

Nail from Lydiate, said: "A celebrant is someone who works with families and funeral directors to produce and conduct a personal, bespoke, meaningful, and dignified funeral ceremony. This can be at a crematorium or at a graveside.

"Wherever the service takes place, the celebrant should create a ceremony which reflects the life and wishes of the deceased, their family, and friends. A celebrant can, if the family wishes, include prayers and hymns, or they can produce a totally non-religious ceremony. The type of ceremony depends totally on the wishes of the deceased and their family.

"Celebrants come from a variety of backgrounds and are usually trained by one of the many celebrant training companies operating in the UK.

"They are self-employed and have a variety of knowledge and skills which they use when constructing a funeral ceremony. A lot of celebrants are former teachers, actors, musicians, ex-service personnel, and members of the caring professions.

"The important thing is that a good celebrant will listen to you and work with you to create a ceremony which reflects the life of the deceased. A good celebrant should not impose his or her beliefs on the funeral ceremony, the ceremony is about the deceased, their family and friends, and not about the celebrant.

"My own background is in the Royal Navy and teaching, I have been a celebrant for more than three years. I work throughout Merseyside and West Lancashire, with funeral directors in Maghull, Burscough, Southport and Liverpool.

"Recently, I had the honour and privilege of conducting the ceremony for the Champion's Jim Sharpe. Like all my ceremonies, it was vital that Jim's funeral reflected his many interests and hobbies as well as providing an opportunity for his friends to say a sad but fond farewell to such a well-respected and loved member of our community.

"Each funeral ceremony is as unique as the individual, it will include music, poems, readings, and reflections. In spending time with the family and friends of the deceased, I can draw upon a wide range of resources to create and deliver a totally bespoke ceremony.

"Celebrants are not necessarily ministers of religion, or Humanists, we provide an alternative for people who do not have a strong connection to a church or faith group. Most good celebrants are also able to signpost people to a variety of resources which can help people through bereavement and loss.

"If anyone wishes to find out more about the work of a funeral celebrant, they can email me at neil.spencer@uksoc.com or visit my blog The Merseyside celebrant."

Borough marks 75th anniversary of VJ Day

WEST Lancashire residents have marked the 75th anniversary of 'Victory over Japan Day'.

The occasion, also known as VJ Day, was held on Saturday, August 15 to mark the end of all hostilities in the Second World War.

While peace arrived in Europe in May 1945, those fighting in the Far East continued until Japan's surrender in the wake of the Hiroshima and Nagasaki atomic bombs.

Tens of thousands of British servicemen endured the brutalities of Japan's prisoner of war camps during World War Two and the victory over Japan came at a heavy price.

Japan surrendered on August 15, 1945.

With Victory in Europe and D-Day anniversaries coming earlier in the calendar, VJ Day is often regarded as the 'forgotten' conflict by many, including The Royal British Legion.

West Lancashire MP Rosie Cooper said: "Three quarters of a century after Victory over Japan,

This year was the 75th anniversary of VJ Day we continue to enjoy the hard fought freedoms secured by the brave men and women in the Pacific theatre.

"Harsh conditions, heavy casualties and some of the worst atrocities recorded enhance the need for us all to take a moment to pay tribute to the efforts of those who secured Victory over Japan."

While figures are disputed, leading historians suggest that British and Commonwealth forces incurred heavy losses of life with 235,000 casualties, including approximately 82,000 killed.

Figures also suggest that British Prisoners of War in Japan had just a 25-27% chance of survival.

British and Commonwealth forces fighting in the Pacific were among the most diverse and multi-cultural. Troops from India, Australia, New Zealand and Nepal all fought together.

Full steam ahead for West Lancs Light Railway!

WEST Lancashire Light Railway will reopen this Sunday (August 23) and organisers hope it will be full steam ahead!

It has been all change for the Station Road facility, having been forced to close down during the virus outbreak in March.

The welcome reopening will be held between 11.30am to 4.30pm but there are new safety measures in place.

A spokesperson said: "We have re-imagined the railway, and now we are ready to reopen, operating steam trains much as before, but with a timetable and procedures devised to safeguard visitors and ourselves and with new toilet and parking facilities.

"Also new is a waiting room intended to provide space for educational activities. Members of the public are cordially invited to the first public operating day since the transformation of the railway.

"Thereafter the railway will open on Sundays and Bank Holidays. For future plans, including Ghost Trains at Hallowe'en and Santa's traditional visits in December, watch this space and our website."

BIRTHDAY MEMORIALS

JOYCE
BRENDA

I still say I Love You, but now there's no reply. I always feel your presence, as if you never left my side.

I remember your comforting voice, now there's not a sound. Only echoes from the past, follow me around.

You're always by my side, but I can't hold your hand. The reason why God took you, I find hard to understand.

Summer days seem much shorter, dark nights just linger on. Dreams turn into nightmares, when the one you love has gone.

But real love never fades, it still burns like the sun. Although they're far away, those memories go on and on.

Her spirit will never die, it shines like the stars. I know you're sleeping in heaven, but you're living in my heart.

Happy Birthday Brenda Lots of love your Loving Husband Ron and Dear Son Kevin xxx
